Matters Arising

Report from Councillor Bob Fraser

Councillor Fraser was not able to report anything further; he cannot comment on anything at present due to the forthcoming elections.

The letter received from Peter Traves shortly after the last meeting was read out. It was agreed that the letter was disappointing in its dismissal of a community asset transfer it did not contain anything unexpected and re-iterated the County Council's position in plain terms.

There followed some discussion led by Arthur Tipper about how to rouse more support from Tutbury people.

Caroline Stringer, the pre-school manager, has publicity planned about the fate of pre-school involving local new media.

Joanna pointed out that it was everyone's responsibility to publicise the situation.

Arthur had had something printed by Katie Boyle in the Burton Mail but it had been edited.

Jill Page reported that Tutbury Pre-school recent Ofsted report had concluded is was good in all areas.

Business Plan

The original business plan had been updated as agreed at the previous meeting. It had been circulated by e-mail and one hard copy prior to the meeting.

The business plan was reviewed page by page with suggestions of amendments and additions from those present as well as Graham Lowther's suggestions brought to the meeting by Deb Bacon.

It was agreed that Joanna and Jane would add the agreed amendments and additions. This version could then be given to Graham Bott, by Councillor Fraser for comment. Peter Traves would be informed by e-mail when this was done.
