Tutbury band invade Ollainville!!

May 24th-26th 2003

Around 90 adults and children invaded Ollainville for the weekend. The majority home stayed in Ollainville and a few stayed in a hotel in Arpajon (down the road). The band played two concerts, one inside and one outside - luckily the rain held off. The band had a wonderful audience for both concerts. We wine and dined after the sunday concert in magnificent style.

Wine tasting - 1st february 2003

A fantastic evening lead by French wine expert Bernard Grosz. Bernard taught us how to look and taste various wines. We tasted a variety of reds and whites and at the end of the evening match the price and description to the wine - this proved more difficult than expected ! A champagne challenge at the start of the evening asked guests to work out which was the Champagne and which was the cava - the moral of this was don't waste your money on Champagne as at least half of you got it wrong!

The unveiling of the Charter in the village hall took place on Sep 6th at 4pm.

Afterwards we got together for boules, crepes and barbecue at Cornmill lane. It was great to see everyone having a go . The weather was unexpectedly great as well!
