One night with you

On Monday 3rd august Tutbury W.I. invited the Appletree group of W.I.s to join them for a strawberry tea and to listen to Elvis Presley sing his best known songs. While everyone thoroughly enjoyed their strawberry treats and Pimms, it was Elvis who held their attention.

Under the disapproving eye of Queen Elizabeth (the First of course!), Elvis entertained us with many of his hits, including "One Night With You" and "Blue Hawaii".

During the songs quite a few committee members from Tutbury could be seen dancing at the back – and they knew all the words.

I'm afraid that quite a few ladies went weak at the knees as Elvis walked round singing to them

It is your reporter's proud boast that she was kissed by Elvis but sadly there is no photographic evidence!
